PUBLIC REGISTRATION CONTRACT AGREEMENT

I hereby request that Brasher's Northwest Auto Auction issue me an Auction Bidding number, with which the auction permits me to consign, preview and purchase at auction. In consideration therefore, I agree:

1. To notify auction immediately of the loss or theft of bidding number.
2. To comply with all the rules and procedures of auction.

I also acknowledge and agree that as to any vehicle brought upon auction premises by or for me, whether for sale at the Auction or otherwise, or purchased at the auction and left there for any reason whatsoever, that such vehicle is left on the premises at my sole risk, and I expressly release auction from any liability for loss resulting from fire, theft, mysterious disappearances, vandalism or any other causes not due to the auction's sole negligence. I acknowledge that the auction does not carry insurance covering any such vehicles. I authorize the Auction to order a credit report if necessary. I have read and understand all portions of this application and have read the terms and conditions and payment policy. I agree to abide by all of the rules and policies of the auction.

Bidder is cautioned to have inspected and be knowledgeable of the items bid upon. All items are sold on a competitive basis and in accordance with the general sales and conditions.

For the receipt of a bidding number, buyer agrees that if the highest bid is accepted, a verbal contract is formed between the seller and the buyer. The contract is enforceable when the auctioneer accepts the buyer's bid. The auction reserves the right to refuse issuing a bidder's badge. Brasher's Northwest Auto Auction does NOT have ownership interest in any vehicle offered at public auctions and does NOT make guarantees or warranties, expressed or implied, of any kind related to any vehicle. All vehicles sold at public auction are sold "AS-IS, WHERE-IS". Consignor is responsible for declaring any major material vehicle defects. Consignor is also responsible for accurate representations of mileage and title defects. Buyer is solely responsible to verify consignor's representations before removing vehicle on the day of sale. Buyer further agrees to hold Brasher's Northwest Auto Auction harmless with regards to the purchase and operation of any vehicle.

By signing, buyer acknowledges having read and understood this document.
